INSTRUCTIONS

1. Trace on the border tiger pattern using either NCR paper or tissue paper. Don't worry about tracing on the lines because we are going to put those on later.
2. Paint in the tiger with 3 coats of Orange Juice.
3. Use your fan brush to paint inside of the mug with three coats of Carnation.
4. When the tiger is dry, line up your pattern and trace on the lines on top.
5. Thin your Licorice paint with a little bit of water. Use your liner brush and trace over the lines with 1 coat.
6. Either trace on the doodles, or you can sketch them on with a waterbased marker.
7. Finally trace over the doodles with one coat of the watered down Licorice paint.

TIPS

- Thinning down the Licorice paint helps the paint flow when outlining.
- The harder you push on the liner brush the heavier the line will be.
